

I do not wish to have Indiana's Do-Not-Call List criteria diluted in any way; our state has been a leader in controlling telephone intrusions into our home, a most welcome situation. Any communication I wish from my banking institution I will initiate on my own. I am most unhappy with the CBA for attempting to open the telemarketing opportunities that have been so unpopular with individual citizens.